

Mariam Al Moosawi

Chief Financial Officer, ADSB

Mariam Al Moosawi is Chief Financial Officer at ADSB, an EDGE entity and regional leader in the build, repair, maintenance, refit and conversion of naval and commercial vessels. In this role, she is responsible for managing the finance and IT operations, and for liaising with the CEO and board of directors to implement strategic initiatives towards business transformation.

Mariam brings to her role more than 10 years of experience in project management, budgeting, ERP and process enhancements, and business transformations.

Prior to her current role, she was Acting Head of Budgeting and Projects, where she managed the financial planning and analysis team focusing on business models, budgeting, and forecasting. She was credited with transforming the cost allocation model from a traditional to a performance focused one to reflect accurate business profitability.

Earlier, she was Corporate Governance Manager at ADSB, and oversaw Oracle automation, quantifying risks and opportunities and transformed the payables and payroll processes through the application of LEAN principles to speed up process times.

In a previous role, as Head of Financial Planning and Analysis, she led the reorganisation and development of the function, with a focus on cost optimisation and accurate forecasting to support net profit growth aligned with the budget. She also led the annual budget preparation through generating the group five-year business plan, overheads report, and HR plan.

Early in her career, she worked as Senior Project Accountant at Tourism Development and Investment Company. She handled over 15 prestigious projects worth more than AED 3 billion, including The Louvre Abu Dhabi, Zayed National, and Guggenheim museums, improving the capitalisation process for the completed projects through the implementation of LEAN principles, and saving consultancy costs of over AED1 million.

Mariam Al Moosawi holds an MBA in Finance and Strategy from Columbia Business School in New York, USA and London Business School in the UK. She also has to her credit a BA in Business Sciences with a focus on Accounting from Zayed University in the UAE.
