

Omar Al Zaabi

Senior Vice President – Trading & Mission Support, EDGE

Omar Al Zaabi is Senior Vice President of the Trading & Mission Support Cluster of EDGE, an advanced technology group for defence and beyond. In this capacity, he provides oversight and strategic direction on the development and business functions to four entities within the Cluster, which include HORIZON, REMAYA, JAHEZIYA and EARTH.

Al Zaabi brings to his role extensive experience in methodology implementation and project management.

Prior to his current position, Al Zaabi served as Senior Vice President, Head of Program Acquisition, within the Program Acquisition Office at EDGE, where he was tasked with managing international business, trading contracts and facilitating recruitment between GHQ and EDGE.

Before joining EDGE, Al Zaabi served as the Deputy Executive Director at Signals Intelligence Agency (SIA), where he was responsible for creating a strategic initiatives roadmap, forecasting the annual budget, implementing budgetary monitoring techniques to improve corporate expenditure and managing relationships with key stakeholders. Here, he provided analytic insights and solutions to mitigate risks, and improved accountability and growth by enhancing processes based on performance reporting, benchmarks and objectives.

Earlier, Al Zaabi held the position of Project Manager at Booz Allen Hamilton in the USA, where he managed and communicated key performance indicators for project cost, scope and timeline.

In addition to obtaining CCNA, CCNP and PMP certifications, Al Zaabi holds a bachelor's degree in Education, and a Higher Diploma in Computer Networking from the Higher College of Technology, UAE.
