

Khaled Al Zaabi

President – Platform & Systems

Khaled Al Zaabi is the President of the Platforms & Systems cluster at EDGE, one of the world's leading defence and advanced technology groups. Khaled provides oversight and strategic direction on the business development and global expansion of seven companies within the cluster, which includes ADASI, ADSB, AL JASOOR, AL TAIF, EPI,

MILREM, and NIMR.

Prior to joining EDGE, Khaled served as a Senior Vice President at Mubadala, where he stood out as a skilled investment professional. His noteworthy journey with Mubadala underlines his expertise in steering growth and championing innovation.

Khaled played an important role in the development and execution of Mubadala's Aerospace and Defense roadmap, demonstrating his capabilities in strategic planning and foresight in the Engine Manufacturing Technology sector. As an Aerospace Manufacturing Sector Lead, Khaled successfully navigated significant merger and acquisition deals in the area of cutting-edge industrial technologies.

In his role as Chief Commercial Officer at NIMR Automotive, Khaled was instrumental in driving the transformation and growth of NIMR by developing and implementing a comprehensive turnaround strategy. He redefined the company's product strategy, reshaped its human capital structure, and revived its customer relationships.

Khaled also lead the Trading & Exchanges Cluster at Mubadala's UAE Investments Platform, where he also represents Mubadala in the UAE Carbon Alliance. His successful establishment of the world's first carbon exchange highlights his innovative approach and strategic foresight, which were key to Mubadala's ongoing success and growth.

Khaled's academic background includes a Bachelor of Aerospace Engineering from RMIT University, Australia, and an Executive MBA from INSEAD, France.
